

Current Activities

The website is now launched and will be developed with facilities such as exchange forums for papers, presentations and links as well as a discussions board. The website was presented during the conference in the last session.

Future Developments

The website will be developed with facilities such as exchange forums for papers, presentations and links as well as a discussions board. Development of future creative art-based (i.e. music and drama) inspired projects possible further development.
